

WALTZER'S GREAT TRIAL.

DARBIN'S SON TAKES THE $20,000 PRIZE AT SHEEPSHEAD BAY.

He Was Very Easily, with Connoisseur Second, and Monaco Third—Mr. James R. Keene Accuses Starter Horses of Favoring the Winner—A Hearing Before the Jockey Club—Mr. Jingle Defeats Lazarone, and Pays $625.25 in the French Pools—Tom Skidmore Runs a Mile in 1:09 2/5—St. Michael Wins with Sport Out of the Way—St. John's Independence Day Steeplechase—Monaco, a Mile in 1:09 2/5—Sir Michael Wins with Sport Out of the Way—St. John's Independence Day Steeplechase—Monaco, a Mile in 1:09 2/5—Sir Walter—To-day's Entries.

Probably 12,000 persons saw Walter defeat his field with ridiculous ease for the $20,000 Great Trial Stakes at Sheepshead Bay yesterday afternoon, finishing far in advance of his field, and adding $17,000 to the bank account of his owners, Messrs. Gideon & Dair. Garrison rode the winner, and had so decided Walter could have won by fifty yards, so greatly did he outclass his field. The winner has improved amazingly since coming to Sheepshead Bay, and decidedly turned the tables on Connoisseur, the hero of the Great Eclipse Stakes at Morris Park. Yesterday Connoisseur was second, earning $2,000, third money, $1,000, going to Louis St. John's Monaco. Messrs. J. R. & F. Peers' Sir Galahad was fourth.

An unpleasant incident of the race, and one which surprised, and pained Mr. James R. Keene's friends exceedingly, was his charge that Mr. Rose, the official starter of the Jockey Club, had favored Waltzer at the post; that the colt had stood the greater part of the time facing the wrong way of the track, and that he had not taken part in many of the breaks which usually occurred in the twenty-five minutes' delay at the post. This charge was made personally by Mr. Keene to the starter, who asked him to make his complaint to the stewards of the Jockey Club and they would undoubtedly investigate the case. After the last race the interested parties were before the Jockey Club. Somebody undoubtedly misled Mr. Keene to know, say that Waltzer behaved badly at the post, but broke quite as often as any other horse in the race. He was kicked severely by Monaco, and as he was the top weight with Connoisseur, the delay would hurt them as much if not more than any of the others.

The attendance was a holiday character. Mr. Croker, brown as a berry and looking extremely well, sat in the grandstand with some friends when not chatting with friends in the club house. He had the pleasure of seeing his crack three-year-old Dobbins work a mile and a half in 2:41 in preparation for the Realization Stakes. Dobbins could have improved on this had he not slowed up on the lower turn, thinking he should go into the chute. Later on he ran to the outside of the track where three or four horses were walking, so that the trial, taking everything into consideration, was a good one. It should be fit to cost $50, the stowards of the day. Messrs. Hunter, Lawrence, and Knapo, during Hardy Campbell, the trainer of the Manhattan Stable, $50 for working a horse so near to the prescribed time of a race as to interfere with the running of that event. The news in another column is that Rev. El Santa Anita is coming on after all to run in the Realization Stakes on Saturday, and will meet Dobbins, Senator Grady, Matt Byrnes, and the other crack of the East will be gratifying to the racing public.

It was an attractive lot of youngsters that went to the post for the Great Trial Stakes. Salvation, Sir Galahad, Waltzer, Connoisseur, South Side, and Monaco should be beat anywhere on the track. Garrison had the inside of the starting gate when he snowed his heels to Sir Galahad, Utica, and Waltzer in the Great Eclipse Stakes at Morris Park. His owner, Charles Littlefield, Jr., was confident that he could win the Great Trial much handier than he had taken Morris Park's chief two-year-old race, and advised all of his friends to have a good bet on the son of Sir Modred. Readers of The Sun will recall Garrison's whirlwind finish of Connoisseur at Morris Park. After Waltzer had led for half a mile in the mud he was passed by Sir Galahad and Utica. Connoisseur came at the end and won by a neck.

But the talent, carried away by Waltzer's races at the Bay, would not have anything to do with yesterday's prize but the son of Darbin and Sir Diane. Garrison had the mount. The Keenes' representative, Sir Galahad, a very handsome colt, was about an equal second choice with Connoisseur. 3 and 4 to 1 being an offer against the sons of Sir Modred. Simms was up on Connoisseur, and Taral, of course, had the mount on Sir Galahad. There was a delay of over twenty minutes at the post during which there were probably eight or ten breaks. Monaco kicked Waltzer, and Liza and Salvation paid their compliments to Keenan, kicking him twice and cutting the skin on one of his quarters. The start was a good one, with Salvation in front, South Side second, and Sir Galahad third. In the run to the dip Salvation was the pacemaker, closely attended by Monaco and Liza. Connoisseur was on the outside of the field, and seemed to be leading while Sir Galahad and Waltzer were in the middle of the bunch, out on the rail. Just before coming to the elbow Garrison crept up next to the rail with the favorite, and when they whirled for the run home Waltzer was in sight. He had a short pull on him and looked over his shoulder at the others. Monaco, Connoisseur, and Sir Galahad were the most fancied of the others. Liza, Monaco, and Waltzer opposite the carriage held. Under the whip Connoisseur gradually wore down Monaco's lead and passing him set out after Sir Galahad, but the instant Garrison called on the latter he drew away again and won hands down. Monaco was beaten for the distance for third place. The time, 1:15, is slow.
